

MOHAMED ABDALLAH SIYAME

BUSINESS LEADER | STRATEGIC ADVISOR | ARCHITECT OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS RELATIONS

Entrepreneurship • Economic Diplomacy • Strategic Partnerships • Africa–Global Relations

Executive Profile

Mohamed Abdallah Siyame is a visionary entrepreneur and internationally recognized leader with extensive experience in value creation and orchestrating strategic partnerships between Africa and global economies. A founder, CEO, and growth architect, he combines proven operational expertise with keen geopolitical insight, having built a remarkable trajectory at the intersection of entrepreneurship, strategic consulting, and economic diplomacy in Angola and Mauritania.

Entrepreneurial & Professional Journey

Foundations (2008–2012)

Mohamed launched his career in 2008 in Mauritania as an accountant at Global Gate Company, before accelerating his ascent to the position of Agency Director at the Banque Nationale de Mauritanie in 2010, where he consolidated his expertise in financial management and institutional governance.

International Expansion (2013–2018)

In 2013, he established the foundation for his continental footprint by settling in Angola as Commercial Director at Ango Real Company. This transition marked the beginning of a series of strategic appointments: Director of Food Distribution at Groupe OPAIA (2016) and Marketing Director at Groupe LUA JARDIM, a regional leader in oil and gas services.

Strategic Leadership & Economic Diplomacy (2019–Present)

In 2019, Mohamed founded Aristotelis Consulting, solidifying his positioning as a premier strategic advisor. In parallel, he was appointed Economic and Political Advisor at the Embassy of the United Arab Emirates in Luanda, merging entrepreneurial expertise with diplomatic influence. In 2025, his appointment as Secretary General of the Angola–Qatar Business Council attests to his central role in redefining African and global commercial corridors. Currently, Mohamed chairs the Angola–Saudi Arabia Chamber of Commerce and Industry, catalyzing transformative economic relations and facilitating large-scale investments.

Civic Engagement & Social Impact

Beyond the private sector, Mohamed embodies holistic leadership. Since 2005, he has headed the National Association for the Promotion of Women's, Children's, and Environmental Protection in Mauritania, demonstrating his commitment to critical social issues. In 2021, he expanded his intellectual influence as International Relations Advisor to the Union of Mauritanian Intellectuals and Academics. In 2022, he co-founded a food bank in Mauritania, translating his vision of inclusive growth. He also leads MTDS, a major construction enterprise involved in strategic infrastructure projects.

Education & Certifications

Mohamed holds a Bachelor's degree in Public Law from the University of Nouakchott and possesses advanced certifications in finance, accounting, and business administration. He has enriched his expertise through specialized training in strategic networking (France) and sustainability/climate change (Germany). Currently in pursuit of further education, he is enrolled in a Dual Master's Degree in Geopolitics and Geo-Economics of Africa through a prestigious partnership between HEC Paris and Polytechnique Rabat, consolidating his understanding of African macroeconomic challenges.

Language Proficiency & Global Perspective

An accomplished polyglot (Arabic, English, Portuguese, French), Mohamed possesses the rare ability to navigate cultural nuances and build bridges across distinct economic ecosystems—a critical asset in a globalized environment.
